

AUM School of Nursing Scholarship Application 2019-2020

Application deadline: December 1, 2018

Thanks to wonderful community partnerships and many generous donors, the Auburn University at Montgomery School of Nursing is pleased to offer a variety of scholarship opportunities for qualified nursing students. Most scholarships require full-time attendance and are based on the applicant's academic or extracurricular record, while some are based on financial need. Additionally, be sure to check AUM's Scholarship Website at <http://www.aum.edu/admissions/financial-affairs/scholarships> to explore all university scholarship opportunities.

School of Nursing scholarships are competitive and limited in number. Scholarships will be awarded to the most qualified candidates who apply by the deadline. Applicants will be notified of scholarship decisions by late spring. Scholarship funds are awarded through the AUM Financial Aid Office. Any questions regarding payment and award disbursement should be directed to Financial Aid.

PLEASE NOTE that a number of scholarships have mandatory requirements that recipients must fulfill. Additionally, it is an expectation that recipients attend Honors Night in the Spring Semester. Submitting this application electronically acknowledges understanding and acceptance of expectations associated with being a scholarship recipient.
