Distinguished Alumni Award

The AUM School of Nursing is accepting nominations for the Distinguished Alumni Award.

The Distinguished Alumni Award is presented to a nursing graduate from any program (BSN, EARN, MSN) who is known for clinical distinction in nursing through scholarly endeavors, promotion of health care, professional service, or who has given remarkable service to the community, state or other beneficiary organizations. The recipient has reflected favorably on the School of Nursing through his/her efforts to benefit society (though not necessarily through direct nursing activity).

The deadline for nominations is September 1, 2017

The award will be presented at the School of Nursing Pinning Ceremony
December 7, 2017
